- E. SESSION SUMMARY

The issues in the paper this week will evolve around how our country in some ways is at an economic stand still and foreign investments will be emphasized.

Deliberations continue on whether the Americans should intervene and fight in the Serbian Bosnian war. Negotiations will not resolve this issue.

President Clinton's popularity will decrease with the public and he will make poor foreign policy decisions in the near term.

A fighter plane may go down this week emphasizing over expenditure of funds spent on such craft.
